Chabot-Las Positas

Association of Retired Employees

Rejoice in Reunion!

Too long we've been apart. Yes, it's been far too long since we have gotten together to share our joys and sorrows of these past few tumultuous years. Too deep. Yes, too deep has been our yearning to gather together with our Chabot-Las Positas retired colleagues and friends over lunch to recount our recent adventures in living, even as during our "stay-cation" lockdowns in avoiding COVID's worst, many of us may have "adventured" through rediscovered travel photos or overlooked keepsakes. Let's rejoice in sharing memories as well as dreams for our future with others who care at our Reunion luncheon set for Friday, 11 AM to 2 PM, October 20, at Las Positas College, Rm 1620/Patio.

Here's our chance to get out and to have a new and delicious experience together in whole new lovely venue. Here's your invitation to enjoy an exquisite buffet lunch on the outdoor patio adjoining the Faculty Dining Hall at Las Positas College.

Our luncheon is set in sight of the campus vineyards in the rolling Livermore hills. Our menu features grilled chicken and salmon, salads, seasonal vegetables, and roasted potatoes. Our luncheon program will feature an update from our recent CARE Grant awardee, Las Positas College's Viticulture Program Director, David Everett. Thanks to the efforts of his enology students along with his oversight and guidance, we will be enjoying two of the wines of the program with our lunch! There will even be a chance to take home a bottle as a winner in our CARE Luncheon raffle!

Don't miss this sterling opportunity to reconnect with former colleagues, meet new ones and enjoy a wonderful afternoon dining outside on a delicious lunch with friends. And, if you so choose, take a guided adventure tour of the campus to feature, not only an exhibit of the oldest Columbian mammoth bones to be discovered in these foothills, but also the newest plans to build out STEM and other vital programs to secure and sustain our bright future. Come to REJOICE IN REUNION.

REGISTER using form on page 4 by Tues, October 10.
